FRANCE CANNOT DOWN DREYFUS CASE! COURT AT LAST SEES SECRET DOSSIER.

Members Pledged Not to Divulge Contents—Furious Debates in Chamber and Senate.

Senators Vote Death for All State Officials Guilty of Treason in Time of Peace.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The Courrier du Soir says this evening: "The Dreyfus secret dossier was handed to the Court of Cassation this evening under the pledge that it should not be communicated to the counsel for Dreyfus or to any one outside the court."

The Chamber of Deputies indulged in another Dreyfus debate today. M. Joseph Poincaré, Socialist Deputy for Alsace, moved a resolution conferring the franchise upon soldiers, and demanded urgency for it. He then proceeded to expound his views, which provoked a great uproar.

The Premier, M. Dupuy, replied: "I should have thought that the Dreyfus affair had already done the country enough harm. M. Poincaré's new proposal would be most perilous. The country wants and has a devoted army to safeguard its independence, and we do not wish to give its officers the means of deserting to the form. We must rally around the army."

The motion for urgency was then defeated by 477 votes against 25.

In the Senate a stormy discussion took place over a bill increasing the penalties for espionage and treason. There were frequent references to Dreyfus.

Eventually the bill, which prescribes death for State officials who are guilty of treason in time of peace, was adopted.

President Faure Disgusted.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—Following the series of Cabinet crises over the Dreyfus case, the Presidency itself is likely to be vacant soon from the same cause.

President Faure has told his friends that he is thoroughly tired and disgusted with the situation, and wants relief from the incessant Cabinet quarrels and dangerous disorders in the Chamber.

He is now consulting with his supporters, including several Cabinet members, as to the most advisable course to adopt. He is considering the alternatives of a dissolution of the Chamber of Deputies or his own resignation.

If the President should resign, the Constitution provides that a joint session of the Senate and Chamber be held in the palace of Versailles to choose a successor.

There may express their confidence by re-electing him or may choose a violent partisan for chief magistrate and precipitate a conflict with the Orleanists and Imperialists.

Adherents of the Bonapartists assert that Prince Victor Napoleon will be here on Monday, and that the coup for which they have waited and planned and hoped to keep France in a turmoil may occur before the new year.

A proclamation issued by the Anti-Semite League has been posted throughout the city recalling the Government's declaration in the Chamber yesterday relative to the existence of the secret dossier.

The proclamation asserts that Dreyfus betrayed the country and was justly condemned, therefore the Government should put an end to the revision proceedings and deal vigorously with the insulters of the army.

Concluding, the proclamation declares that if the Government fails to do so, the people will assume the exercise of their rights upon the ground that the country is threatened.

MME. DREYFUS AND MME. HENRY SPEAK THROUGH THE JOURNAL.

(Copyright, 1895, by W. R. Hearst.)
Special Cable to the Journal.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The two saddest and most talked of women in France, Mme. Dreyfus and Mme. Henry, granted interviews to-day to the Journal's correspondent. The wife of the prisoner of Devil's Island appeared resigned but hopeful; the widow of the dead Colonel is still defiant.

"The decision of the Court of Cassation will mean the release of my husband," said Mme. Dreyfus. "Everybody knows the character of his persecutors. His innocent cry from the hut on Devil's Island has been heard round the world."

Mme. Henry, dressed in widow's weeds, bowed by many sorrows and almost penniless, is still waging a valiant fight against the intruders of her husband's memory.

"The crusade against my dead husband is abominable," she said to-day. "Reinach, whom the army degraded, would not dare attack him were he living. If my husband did forge the Dreyfus documents his acts lacked malice. He acted on the principle that public safety is supreme to everything."

"Colonel Henry was a child of the people. His memory will not tarnish. Though we cannot control large sums of money like the Jews, still widows' mites and the pennies of the poor are helping to swell the fund that will enable me to check Reinach and the anti-army press that are maligning the memory of my husband. The increase of the fund shows that the army and the people are making his cause their cause."

DANGEROUS HULK IN STEAMER PATH.

Abandoned Vessel Reported Thirty-six in Her Dairy Killed by Order of Her Majesty.

LEITH, Dec. 20.—The British steamer Kilmorock, Captain Edwards, which arrived here yesterday from Baltimore, reported an abandoned vessel, laden, waterlogged, and dismantled, on December 11 in latitude 38 north, longitude 68 west. An effort was made to decipher the name, but this could not be done positively. As near as could be read the vessel appeared to be the "Harry Barrill, of Philadelphia." The Kilmorock further reported the derelict to be a dangerous obstruction to navigation, being in the course followed by many vessels.

There is no record of any such vessel in any shipping record, but it is probably some vessel having a similar name.

Queenstown, Dec. 20.—The Red Star line steamer Waesland, Captain Elchoff, from Philadelphia, December 10, for Liverpool, arrived here to-day and reported that she spoke the bark J. H. Bowers, of Rockland, Me., on December 12, short of food, her crew having subsisted on one biscuit a day each for ten days, and were almost famished.

The Waesland supplied her with provisions. The Bowers sailed from Philadelphia in command of Captain Magnus, September 20, for Boston, and had been out eight or nine days.

Limerick, Dec. 20.—The British steamer Falka, Captain Torquell, from Philadelphia, which arrived at this port on December 17, reported that on November 17, she rescued the crew of the American schooner D. K. Baker, of Charleston, S. C., for New York.

BRITISH HARDWARE MAKERS IN FEAR OF US.
Will Ask Salisbury to Confer with the United States as to Colonial Imports.

Special Cable to the Journal.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Hardware firms of Birmingham, Sheffield and the Midlands districts are alarmed at the probable effect on the business of the acquisition of the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico by the United States. They are holding meetings thereon.

A large business is done with these colonies in hardware, mostly through Spanish houses. As a result of the meetings a resolution will be moved at the coming conference in London of the Associated Chambers of Commerce that a memorial be presented to Lord Salisbury to enter into friendly relations with the United States in order that the produce and manufactures of Great Britain shall not be subjected to differential treatment with the imports of the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico.

AMERICA TAKES ART TREASURE FROM FRANCE.
Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst Will Present D'Epinay's Jeannette d'Arc to the Washington Museum.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The Paris Herald says: France has lost an opportunity of keeping a remarkable art work, and as usual, America has seized it. Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst has bought Prosper d'Epinay's marble bust of Jeannette d'Arc, her intention being to present it to the Washington Museum after it has been exhibited in New York for a short time.

During the last month the most distinguished personages in Paris have attended, unconsciously, the bust in which D'Epinay has realized the marvellously strange union of mysticism and martial ardor that makes the Maid of Orleans one of the most attractive and enigmatical figures in French history. The Grand Dukes Vladimir and Alexis paid more than one visit.

Wide World Gleanings.
Paris is at present suffering from static miasma. The latest victims of it is a movement to erect a statue to the Emperor Julian.

The death of three persons from pneumonia in the village of Hiverville, has been traced to a lot of sick parrots.

A former master of Rye Workhouse, England, has been admitted as a pauper inmate of the institution over which he formerly presided.

A man can be married in Melbourne cheaper than in any other part of the world. These marriages are witnessed against each other in the streets. In some cases wedding breakfasts and rings are thrown in.

The principal contributor to a doll exhibition for charitable purposes in Berlin was Carmen Sylva, Queen of Rumania. Her dolls, made by her own hands, represented all the peasant types of Rumania.

"Jumpers" is the name of a new religious sect in Russia. As soon as it is a member enters, he assumes the eccentricities of a jumper, and keeps up the performance until he falls exhausted in his pews. Instead of prayers the worshippers indulge in wild howls and screams. Most of the adherents of this new sect are Finnish Protestants.

OUT OF HAVANA GO THE SPANARDS.

The Forts to Be Manned by American Soldiers Within Two Days.

LAST TRANSPORTS COME. AUTHORITIES ARE DEFIED.

Evacuation of the Cuban Capital to Be Complete by New Year's Day.

HAVANA, Dec. 20.—Captain-General Jimenez Castellan informed Brigadier-General Crous to-day that the evacuation of Havana would be complete on or before January 1 next. Fourteen transports are due to arrive from Spain within the next ten days. There are 10,000 Spanish troops still in Havana and its environs, but the last few thousand will embark simultaneously. This information was particularly agreeable to the Americans because all Spanish troops who remain here after January 1 will have to be protected.

The Spanish transports Notre Dame, with General Estruch and 953 officers and men, and Las Andes, with 1,340 officers and men, sailed for Cadiz to-day. The Spanish troops today being the evacuation of the north-west part of Havana City. The Spanish sick will remain in the Principe Fort after January 1, if necessary.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon the orders which had been issued to the Eighth and Tenth Regular Infantry regiments to occupy the sea coast batteries were changed at the request of Captain-General Castellan, who fears that a conflict of authority might occur should the Americans occupy any portion of the city proper prior to the final evacuation.

At noon to-day Major Russell E. Hartshorn, with a detachment of the First North Carolina regiment, raised the Stars and Stripes over Fort Atares, in full sight of the wreck of the United States battleship Maine.

The Eighth and Tenth Regular Infantry regiments have been ordered by the United States Evacuation Commissioners from Quemados, and they will report here for duty to-morrow, under the command of General Greene. All the sea-coast batteries outside the town, including Santa Clara and La Reina, will be occupied by the American troops by Thursday. The men will camp in tents, with details to guard the forts. No flags will be hoisted before January 1.

Commodore R. J. Cromwell reported to the United States Evacuation Commissioners to-day that he would take the vessel and naval property of Spain in Havana after January 1 and be captain of the Port.

The Spanish immovable property, according to the inventory, is estimated to be worth about $5,000,000. The inventory is a huge document, containing many hundreds of pages of manuscript, and gives full details of all the Spanish property in Cuba.

MARIA TERESA A HOPELESS WRECK.
Cervera's Flagship, Stranded on Cat Island, Broken Up by the Sea.

According to mail advices from Nassau, N. P., the stranded cruiser Maria Teresa, which stranded on Cat Island, has broken in two just off of the after funnel. The forward part remains fast on the reef, but the after part has slid into deeper water, where it lies, entirely submerged, even at low water.

The weather has been very boisterous, and the wreck is rapidly breaking to pieces under the blows of the tremendous surf that at times swallows it out of sight.

KAISER'S SON AS AN EXPERT ON PLAYS.
He Selects Goethe's "Iphigenia" When Allowed to Name the Holiday Performance.

Special Cable to the Journal.
(Copyright, 1895, by W. R. Hearst.)

Berlin, Dec. 20.—The young Crown Prince's fondness for the theatre has led to his asking the Kaiser to permit him to select the plays for the Berlin Theatre Royal during the Christmas holidays.

The Kaiser assented, and the Crown Prince wrote to Count Hochberg, the State Controller of Theatres, selecting first Goethe's "Iphigenia." The Kaiser is much gratified by his son's artistic taste.

GERMANY SETS FREE MR. KNAAK OF NEW YORK.
It Appears He Called the Kaiser a "Blockhead," but the Court Finds He Was Intoxicated.

Berlin, Dec. 20.—The Provincial Court has acquitted Mr. Frank Knaak, of New York, of the charge of lese majeste, in referring to Emperor William as a calf's head, because, it appears, Mr. Knaak was intoxicated when he committed the offence. A member of the United States Embassy was present during the court proceedings.

Commercial Councillor Moeller was the principal witness for the prosecution. He deposed that he heard Mr. Knaak refer to the "miserable German nation," adding that he generally condemned the Hohenzollerns and said Emperor William was a "blockhead," not a "calf's head," as previously reported.

A doctor deposed that Mr. Knaak was a dipsomaniac, but the prosecution asked for a sentence of nine months' imprisonment. The Court, after a long deliberation, decided to acquit the prisoner on the ground that the evidence raised a doubt as to whether Mr. Knaak was in a condition to know what he was doing, and also in view of the fact that when he was sober Mr. Knaak always expressed high esteem for Germany and Emperor William.

Breathing Through the Nose.
Nature provides the proper course for the passage of air to the lungs.—Dr. Hartman helps keep the way open.

PERUNA MEDICINE CO., COLUMBUS, O.
Permanent nose breathing cannot be established by any local treatment; the membranes must be made healthy. The remedy which heals the membranes and cures catarrh is Dr. Hartman's great prescription, Peruna, which has stood without a successful rival for forty years as a cure for all catarrhal trouble. All druggists sell it.

Catarrh is weakening. Every inflammation of the mucous membrane is catarrh. There may be catarrh in any organ of the body, for all the organs are lined with mucous membrane.

Mr. J. Reimers, Ossage, Ia., writes the following strong letter to Dr. Hartman: "For many years I suffered with catarrh of the head, nose and throat; the least change in the weather bringing on a bad cold, followed by pain and headache. Also for the last six or seven years I was troubled with general weakness. Nothing did me any good until I began to take Peruna. I took four bottles in all, and I am as well as I ever was in my life. I can recommend it also for coughs and colds. I keep Peruna in the house all the time, and regard it as a pleasure to recommend it to all. I am enjoying the best health of my life and have only Peruna to thank for it."

Peruna conquers every phase of catarrh and builds up the general health. Dr. Hartman gives personal attention to correspondence from all catarrhal sufferers.

Mr. C. R. Harden, Evansville, Wis., writes: "I was troubled with catarrh for fifteen years, of which the Peruna has entirely cured me. I am no more troubled with the choking which the catarrh produced and am able to sleep well. Peruna also cured my son of severe lung trouble, stopping the hemorrhages entirely. He is now well and hard at work."

Dr. ROBERT HUNTER, 117 West 45th St., New York.

DR. ROBERT HUNTER, recognized everywhere as the greatest living authority on diseases of the breathing organs, has just published a book on Consumption and other diseases of the throat and lungs. This book has created a sensation in medical and newspaper circles, because it shows beyond any question that Consumption, as treated by Dr. Hunter, is a curable disease. The book tells plainly the true nature of Consumption; its causes; its unmistakable symptoms; how to prevent it, and how it can be radically cured.

The book is of such great importance to the welfare of the whole people that it has been decided to issue an edition of 50,000 copies in paper covers for free general distribution.

From the New York Herald: "It seems after many disappointments and false rumors of the cure for consumption, that the treatment as discovered and practiced by Dr. Robert Hunter, 117 West 45th Street, New York, has accomplished results so satisfactory that this great disease need no longer be classed among the incurables."

From the New York Sun: "Dr. Hunter's recent book on Consumption and its wonderful cures that have been reported, effectively remove all doubts as to the curability of this dread disease."

SPANIARD TORE OLD GLORY DOWN.

HAVANA, Dec. 20.—Samuel L. Israel, of No. 243 West Forty-ninth street, New York, opened a little store on Obispo street a few days ago for selling American flags and jewelry. His wife appeared in tears to General Greene last night, saying that Israel had been arrested and that she could not find him.

General Greene sent Captain Moit to Captain-General Castellanos, asking that Israel be produced and sent to General Greene. In an hour an aide-de-camp of the Captain-General brought the man to the Hotel Inglaterra. He had been in the Puzos Prison.

Israel says that at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a Spanish lieutenant entered his store, tore down the flags and broke the showcases with his sword. Later he sent three men, who arrested Israel.

Berlin, Dec. 20.—The Kaiser, who recently presented the Reichstag with a series of marine sketches by himself, taken on board the Hohenzollern, now presents it with a new series, collaborated with the marine painter Stowes, and destined for the walls of the Reichstag.

Critics say the gifts are intended to pave the way for a demand for further naval credits.

It appears from the statistics of the German schools that during the space of ten years no fewer than 407 school children have taken their own lives. All these cases occurred in the Volksschulen, and were outside of the unfortunate 331 were boys and 76 girls.

AMERICA TAKES ART TREASURE FROM FRANCE.
Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst Will Present D'Epinay's Jeannette d'Arc to the Washington Museum.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The Paris Herald says: France has lost an opportunity of keeping a remarkable art work, and as usual, America has seized it. Mrs. Phoebe A.
